

Adam Sees

Daniel J. Mount

D                      G                      A                      D

1. He hears a rus - tle in the breeze His Ma - ker walk - ing in the trees The
 2. For cen - tur - ies he bears the blame Long cen - tur - ies of death and shame Each
 3. He hears a thun - der at the door He sees a face he's seen be - fore His

G                      D                      A                      D

6 face he once had loved to see A - dam sees _____ His wi - dow's face each or - phan's name A - dam sees _____ He Friend, his Son, is now His Lord A - dam sees _____ With

G                      D                      A                      A+

11 breath still bears for - bid - den fruit Ex - cus - ses are no sub - sti - tute The curse of sin had sees his chil - dren join the slain He fights the thorns, but fights in vain He longs for death to joy he joins the ran - somed dead For Christ the Vic - tor in his stead Has fin - ally crushed the

F#m                      A7                      G                      D                      G                      D

16 ta - ken root _____ A - dam sees end the pain _____ that A - dam sees ser - pent's head _____ A - dam sees