

The Lord is There

Daniel J. Mount

Daniel J. Mount

♩ = 86

1. Zi - on stand through-out the a - ges While its ru - lers rise and fall Ne - ver -
 2. Where are Zi - on's for - mer glo - ries? I - cha - bod is all we've known Who can
 3. Zi - on's filled with shrines and al - tars Set a - part for o - ther lords Fa - ded
 4. Zi - on rise! Your Lord ap - pear - ing Come to claim His right - ful throne And the 6

- ending bat - tle ra - ges Ha - ted and oppressed by all It is now a de - so - still re - call the sto - ries When it held God's ho - ly throne But His glo - ry long de - are the songs of psal - ters And the harp's and trum - pet's chords Till the day a trum - pet na - tion stream - ling, fea - ring Worship God and God a - lone Sound no more la - ments in 11

- la - tion Though its streets are far from bare It a - waits its re - sto - ra - tion On the
 - par - ted Will, like light - ning, fill the air When the skies one day are par - ted On the soun - ding Hails Me - ssi - ah in the air And His prai - ses are re - soun - ding On the Ra - mah On - ly prai - ses now pre - pare Zi - on will be Yah - weh - Sha - mah Ci - ty

16

day "The Lord is There" "The Lo - rd is There"
 day "The Lord is There" "The Lo - rd is There"
 day "The Lord is There" "The Lo - rd is There" named, "The Lord is There!" "The Lo - rd is There!"